We have been working hard on practising our play "The Wind in the Willows" and enjoyed a Victorian seaside day at St. John's Museum yesterday.

Damson Class:

We have been working on our descriptive writing in Literacy - writing our own tales of the Hobbit.

Oak Class:

We had a very informative visit to Jaguar Land Rover where we toured parts of the testing areas and saw the importance of computers in automation. We are busy working on our summer class play and our enterprise project ideas.
